Hindu Students are being persecuted in Bangladesh alleged blasphemy against Islam

Hindu students in Bangladesh are continuously been persecuted for alleged Blasphemy against Islam. These events follow a common pattern. Hackers target Facebook IDs having Hindu names, hacks the IDs, and then using the hacked ID comments blasphemous post against Islam in social media. Then the screenshot of the comments is posted in a social media platform to instigate the Muslim students as well as general population especially those with radical Islamic bent of mind. Then the university authority suspends the student and a case is filed against the student in Digital Security Act (DSA).
